

Application: International Chronobiology Summer School

in 2016 in Beijing

The registration fee is $385 (2500 RMB). This covers lecture materials and socials but do NOT cover accommodation and meals. Maximum attendees are 50. We will waive the registration fee to substantial number of students. A small number of travel awards ($500) from the registration fee will be available. Please highlight in your application if you would like to be considered for this and your reasons for requesting assistance.

In order to apply to the summer school, please fill out the following application, abstract and survey forms, and send it with the recommendation letter of PI to mcgovern@pku.edu.cn or zhangerquan@nibs.ac.cn by June 15th. We will send you the receipt within a few days when we receive your application. Our committee will select the applicants and the free-registration attendees and notify the result by June 22nd.
